Literary TRIVIA Night

Thursday, February 24th
@6:30pm

Welcome to the Brooks Trivia Night Books Edition!

Do you fancy yourself to be a Dickian? Peruse the works of Tolstoy? Have you read everything about Jane Austen? Do you fancy yourself to be a fact hoarder? Or does reading take up the majority of your free time?

Brooks Public Library is here for you!
We will be hosting a night filled with random trivia based around one singular topic, reading! This is your time to shine!

Contact the library at 403-362-2947 to register for this event.
The winner will receive a prize!

The National Film Board of Canada: Birth of a Family

Wednesday, February 16th @6:30pm

Join us virtually to watch this deeply moving feature-length documentary in which three sisters and a brother meet for the first time after having been removed from their young Dene mother during the infamous Sixties Scoop.

Contact the library at 403-362-2947 to reserve a spot for this online program.

Reader's Advisory: Goodreads And Other Reading Tools

Wednesday, February 23rd @6:30pm

Deciding what to read next?
You're in the right place.

Join us in the library to learn about some online reading tools to track what you're reading, have read, and want to read, and find insightful recommendations on what to read next.

Attendance capacity is limited - please call ahead to reserve your seat.
