Nomination Details

Title (of program, service, individual, or project):
Your Town Library Manager

Brief description (of program, service, individual, or project):
Your Town Library Manager has worked tirelessly over the last year to deliver a variety of relevant programming and services through the library. Her amazing dedication to library services and the value of literacy are incredible. She volunteers hours of her own time to making things happen for the community and the library is a better place because of her!

Briefly describe how this program, service, individual, or project meets the criteria outlined above:
Your Town Library Manager has shown great innovation and creativity in developing new programs and ways to meet community needs. She is always working on new ways to bring more people of all ages into the library. The children's programming is amazing, in both frequency and variety. She has partnered with local agencies such as the local RCMP, the school and the local literacy group to bring in valuable services and information to the community. She has worked hard to help set up an English language conversation group to help local Mennonite ladies improve their English skills. She is constantly thinking up new creative ways to make the library a vibrant community hub!
